—Reports have it that the farmers throughout Central Kentucky will this year test their seed corn and take no chances on having to plant their crops over. It seems that much of the corn crop of 1910 was either cribbed too soon or permitted to remain in the shock too long.

—Mrs. M. D. Hughes, a poultry fancier of Lancaster, had the unique and surprising experience of setting sixteen eggs under a hen and hatching sixteen healthy chicks. Mrs. Hughes prefers the Barred Plymouth Rock, and already has over 100 young chickens in under brooders and making rapid growth.

Winchester Court—The Democrat reports Winchester court as follows: "About 400 cattle at Hamilton's Stock Yard. There was a wide difference of opinion between buyer and sellers and the market was draggy and some were left unsold. The best prices of the day was $5.85 for a lot of good feeders, 950 lbs. in weight; heifers brought 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 cents; cows, 2 1/2 to 3 cents; hogs, 7 cents.

—A rather unique procedure in the way of selling mule flesh was pursued by Johnson Speaks, of the Marksburg section of Garrard county. The trader conceived the plan of selling one of his long-eared quadrupeds by the pound. He was offered thirteen cents a pound, and the animal tipping the beams at 1,000 pounds, the mule consequently brought Mr. Speaks $130.

Nineteen Children and Not Forty

The birth of her nineteenth child was recorded in the Chicago Health Department by Mrs. John Adduci, wife of a laborer. She herself is only 39 years old, and of the nineteen children, all of which were born singly, sixteen still are living.

Ban on Nat's Matrimonial Ventures.

There will be no more wedding bells for Nat Goodwin, the noted actor, for a while at least. In granting a decree of divorce in favor of Edna Goodrich Goodwin the Judge forbade Goodwin to marry again during the life of the plaintiff. The last was the fourth matrimonial venture for Mr. Goodwin.
